between
UNIVERSITAS PANCASAKTI TEGAL
and
UNIVERSITY of TASHKENT for APPLIED SCIENCES in UZBEKISTAN

UNIVERSITY of TASHKENT for APPLIED SCIENCES,

1- Gavkhar street, 100149 Tashkent, Uzbekistan

UNIVERSITAS PANCASAKTI TEGAL

Jl. Halmahera Km. 1 Kota Tegal 52121, Indonesia

signed the following agreement in the purpose of strengthening cooperation and mutual exchange:

Article 1.

The fields of cooperation.

The following cooperation involves any activities and programs by mutual agreement, which is accepted and considered appropriate by both parties, for strengthening and developing the scientific-methodological and scientific research.

Article 2.

The types of cooperation.

1. The special cooperation between two Universities (except for these) may cover the following areas:
 - a) Exchanging the scientists and researchers;
 - b) Joint scientific research projects;
 - c) Researcher, monitoring of doctoral students;
 - d) Participation in seminars and scientific meetings;
 - e) Activities of doctoral students, possible exchange of doctoral students (the parties may mutually agree);
 - f) Student participation in study abroad programs hosted by each university.

Article 3.

Exchange of university professors and researchers

1. Both universities are committed to facilitating the visits of each other's professors and researchers. Visiting professors and researchers follow administrative procedures as required by the host university.
2. Both universities may, but are not obligated to, provide financial support for visiting professors or researchers from another institution.
3. Both universities provide accommodation for visiting professors and researchers from the other universities but are not required to provide such accommodation.
4. Both universities allow visiting professors and researchers from the other university, use of research space, libraries, and other facilities, free lecture opportunities, and other general favours given to visiting scholars in general.

Article 4.

Student exchange

Both universities can exchange doctoral and undergraduate students.

1. Each university is responsible for the selection of exchange students. Exchange students from both universities pay tuition fees to their home institution and then do not pay tuition fees when they transfer to another institution. However, small fees may be charged on this basis to local students for expenses such as insurance, student unions and bodies, and the use of various materials such as laboratory supplies.
2. Each university will assist in arranging local accommodation for visiting students; however, these local accommodation costs are covered by visiting students. Each participating student or his/her university is responsible for the costs of travel arrangements. Additional fees such as passports, visas, telephone services, books, and any other personal taxes are covered by the student.
3. Each university may assist its students by providing certain scholarships. Each university requires students to provide their own medical/health insurance while participating in student exchange. All students must provide the host with this insurance. They must provide proof of their identity.

Article 5.

Responsibilities of the Memorandum

Final responsibility for this memorandum rests with the Rector/President of each university, but administrative responsibility rests with the following staff of each institution.

- a) UNIVERSITAS PANCASAKTI TEGAL: The coordinator of international relationship
- b) UNIVERSITY of TASHKENT for APPLIED SCIENCES: the head of the Department of International Relations

Article 6.

Term of validity of the memorandum

1. This Memorandum will come into effect upon official approval by the governing bodies of both universities and will be valid for 5 (five) years and may be renewed.
2. If either party wishes to terminate this Memorandum early, it may terminate this Memorandum by notifying the other party of its intent in writing six (6) months before the date of termination by post with the sign and stamp.
3. The provisions of this Memorandum may be amended at any time by mutual written consent of both universities.
