13. Anti-Corruption

Each party shall comply with all applicable bribery and anti-corruption legislation in force in their domestic jurisdictions and each agrees to take reasonable steps to assist the other party to comply with the others legislative requirements that may apply to international or cross-border agreements. Where any international legislation applies to this MOU concerning anti bribery, fraud or anti- corruption, each party will assist the other in ensuring compliance with said international legislation.

14. Data Protection

The Parties agree that any personal data shared under this MOU complies with any data protection laws in force in each party's domestic jurisdictions. Where there is any divergence between the data protection laws of the Parties respective countries during the term of this MOU, each Party will assist the other in ensuring minimum disruption to this MOU. The Parties shall implement reasonable security measures to protect personal data.

15. Prevailing Language

This MOU has been drawn up in the English language, but each party may prepare a translation into its own native language. However, in case of inconsistencies between the English text and any of its translation, the English text will prevail for interpretation purposes.

16. Binding & Nature of MOU

- a) This MOU sets forth the general intentions of the Parties with respect to cooperation in the areas described herein. Except as expressly provided paragraph (b) below, this MOU is not intended to create legally binding obligations, and the Parties acknowledge that any specific activities or collaborations contemplated under this MOU shall be subject to the execution of separate definitive agreements where required and shall comply with availability of funds, the applicable laws, rules, regulatory requirements, and policies of the respective Parties.
- b) Notwithstanding the above paragraph (a) above, the Parties agree that the following provisions of this MOU shall be legally binding and enforceable upon the Parties:
